

USEFUL WEBSITES FOR STUDENTS

Listening

<http://www.simpleenglishnews.com/>

A website that allows you to read and listen to news stories written in simple English.

<http://www.manythings.org/e/listening.html>

Links to a variety of websites that include listening activities and quizzes.

<http://lyricstraining.com/>

A website that helps you to learn English using music videos.

<http://www.esl-lab.com/>

A large collection of audio scripts and quizzes for Beginner, Intermediate, and Advanced.

<http://www.ello.org/>

Listening activities for a variety of levels. Read, listen, and learn some new vocabulary.

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/>

This website has a wide variety of audio/video materials for all levels, with activities and quizzes.

<http://learnenglish.britishcouncil.org/en/listen-and-watch>

Practise your listening skills while watching these entertaining videos from the British Council.

USEFUL WEBSITES FOR STUDENTS

Reading

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/>

Read news articles and audio transcripts, then take quizzes to check your understanding.

<http://www.timeforkids.com/news>

A website from TIME magazine that contains articles on a wide variety of topics.

<http://web2.uvcs.uvic.ca/elc/studyzone/index.htm>

Choose your level, then select from a range of reading activities and quizzes.

<http://fiction.eserver.org/short/>

More suitable for Advanced students, this site contains a variety of short fiction (classic and modern).

<http://eslreadinglessons.com/>

A great website for Intermediate-Advanced students to practise reading and vocabulary.

USEFUL WEBSITES FOR STUDENTS

Grammar and vocabulary

<http://www.eslcafe.com/grammar.html>

Links to a variety of grammar lessons. A good place to start if you're having trouble with grammar.

<http://esl.fis.edu/grammar/index-g.htm>

English grammar quizzes. Practise what you've learned.

<http://web2.uvcs.uvic.ca/elc/studyzone/index.htm>

Choose your level, then select either 'grammar' or 'vocabulary' to begin.

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/learningenglish/english/features/witn>

Use this website to learn words that often appear in news articles.

<http://a4esl.org/>

Contains grammar and vocabulary exercises and activities for students of all levels.

<http://www.grammar-quizzes.com/>

Choose a grammar point, read the lessons, then take the quiz.